

By design, Club Log's league tables only list callsigns that:

- Are active i.e. they have made, logged and uploaded at least one QSO within the past 12 months;
- Have not been marked as "hidden" by their owners (see below);
- Meet the report selection criteria (e.g. if you select a CW-only report, calls that have not logged any CW QSOs will obviously not be listed);
- Do not have an unusually low matching rate (less than 15% of QSOs matching).

To find out why one or more of your callsigns is not appearing, check your settings:

Please note: callsigns are automatically retired from league tables after 12 months of inactivity. However, there is no limit on uploading historical or dormant logs to Club Log for the use of other features, and all QSOs are valuable for creating most-wanted lists and DXCC analysis.
