ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
ALEXANDRIA RADIO CLUB, INC.,
*****

This is to certify that we do hereby associate ourselves to establish a corporation not organized for profit, in which no capital stock is required or to be issued, under and by virtue of Chapter 2, Title 13.1, Code of Virginia, 1950 and acts amendatory thereof, for the purposes and under the corporate name hereinafter mentioned, and to that end we do, by this our certificate, set forth as follows:

- a. The name of this corporation shall be ALEXANDRIA RADIO CLUB, INC.,
- b. The purposes for which this corporation is organized are as follows:

- To provide a means of social contact amongst its members.
- To promote better relationship between the radio amateur and the general public.
- To extend the knowledge of the radio art.
- To prepare for and to participate in radio communications incident to public service during times of disaster or national emergencies, and in other activities to promote the public welfare.

- To have as a part of the organization an amateur radio station located at the Red Cross Chapter House in the City of Alexandria and/or such other suitable places.

- To organize and operate as a RACES and KECB amateur radio group both fixed, portable and mobile.

- To participate in amateur radio activities such as field day and contests and to erect, install and operate portable or mobile radio stations in all such instances.

- To participate in and assist in all State, national and local emergencies as the Board of Directors may from time to time decide.

- c. The period and duration of this corporation shall be unlimited and perpetual, and no part of the net income of this non-stock, non-profit corporation is to inure to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual. In the event of its dissolution, the assets of the corporation, remaining after the payment of its outstanding liabilities, will be transferred to one or more organizations operating for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes and exempt from Federal income tax under the provisions of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, or future amendments thereto, or to a Federal, State, or local government entity to be used for exclusively public purposes.

d. The corporation shall have one class of members, who shall be those persons accepted to membership by the Board of Directors of the corporation. All such members shall have voting rights, which shall include, but not be limited to, the annual election of the members of the Board of Directors of the corporation and such other voting rights as are conferred by the Code of Virginia.

e. A quorum shall consist of ten (10) members present at a meeting.

f. The names and places of residence of the initial board of directors of this corporation, which shall initially be six in number, and who shall manage the affairs of the corporation for the first year, unless others are sooner chosen to act in their stead, are as follows:
