

Ham Radio License Class

WØTLM Radio Association

- Earn your FCC Amateur Radio Technician License
 - Optionally also earn your FCC Amateur Radio General License
- Convenient online learning with personal assistance and demos
- Learn to operate ham radio for emergency communications
- Learn to use the many VHF/UHF FM radio repeaters in Colorado
- License exam session included, all learning materials included

The FCC Technician license is your gateway to the worldwide excitement of Amateur Radio, and the best emergency communications available!

Instruction:

- A 20-hour, paced course of study
- Initial session equipment demonstrations
- Student self-study with the Ham Radio School Technician License Course, includes
 - eBook readings
 - Video instruction
 - Focused reviews and quizzes
 - Optional in-depth learning media
 - Practice exams
- One-on-one personalized support from a knowledgeable and experienced operator
- Regular review sessions for Q&A, extra help
- All study materials included in registration

Schedule (2024):

- Introductory Session, In Person
Sat Oct 19, 1-3 pm
Woodmoor Barn, Monument
- Zoom Instructional Review Sessions:
Thur Oct 24, 7-8 pm
Wed Oct 30, 7-8 pm
Thur Nov 7, 7-8 pm
- FCC License Examination
Sat Nov 9, 10:30 am
Monument Library
- Get On the Air Help Session, In Person
Sat Nov 16, 1-3 pm
Woodmoor Barn, Monument

Class registration fee: $50 ($40 under age 18; additional fee for General)

- Includes all instruction, personalized support, & non-expiring subscription to course materials.
- Advanced registration is required (see below).
- An FCC license application fee of $35 is required following successful examination.

Register at: <https://w0t1m.com/radio-classes/tech-registration>

 For questions, contact Bob Witte KØNR: Bob@k0nr.com

Sponsored by the Tri-Lakes Monument Radio Association

A Colorado registered non-profit organization.

wØt1m.com