2014 FIELD DAY AT CALVERT MARINE MUSEUM

We started out around 7:30 AM, on the main stage at Calvert Marine Museum

Charlie, AB3LE Arrives!

THE WATT

We were soon hanging antennas from the railing of the lighthouse and the balcony of the museum.

Taking time for real face to face communications.

THE WATT

Some real operating did go on, however, with Shawn, N3AE (Left) and Eric, W4OTN (Right) taking part.

Yagi-Uda's great, great grandson, Dave, W3PQS

CARA's Meals On Wheels, Les, KH6CUJ

THE WATT

Mobile operating at its finest, complete with solar power, courtesy of Dave, KB3RAN.

What does this button do? (Ron, WA4PRR)

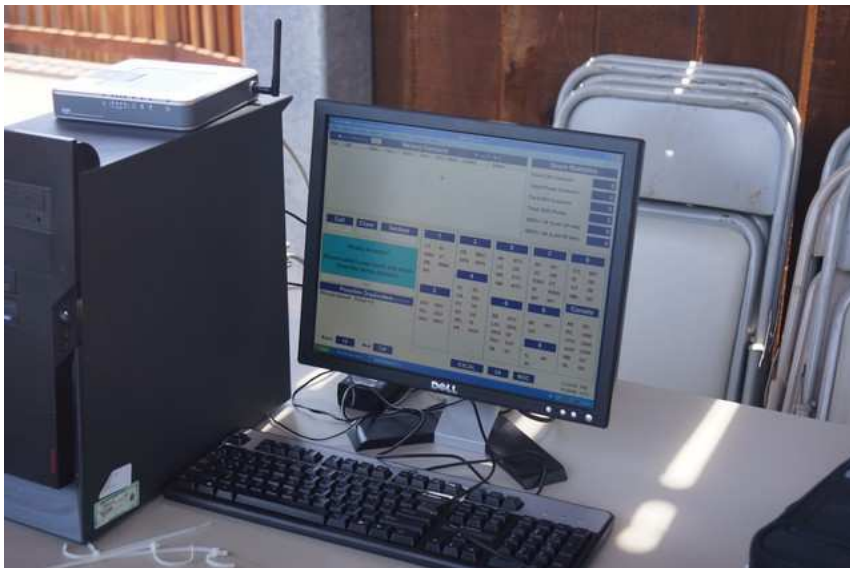

Skeet shooting for antennae. (Ed, KC3AEN)

Special Thanks for this Year's Field Day at Calvert Marine Museum

CARA would like to thank Dave Weaver, W3PQS for organizing this year's Field Day. Special thanks also go to the following people:

Jim Tetlow K3UGA for the use of his generator, and his wife Linda for delivering it in Jim's absence.

Dave Moore, N3TZO for the use of his electrical panel.

Les Silva, KH6CUJ for doing the food.

Dave Hardy, KB3RAN for the solar power station and the many high quality photos he took.

Cammie Weaver, KA3RUR for her delicious dessert.

And last but not least, the people who helped with setup and teardown:

Steve Hempling, N3IPN
Dave Hardy, KB3RAN
Bill Hackett, N3XMZ
Ron Byzett, WA4PRR,
Shawn Donley, N3AE
Dick Ratcliffe, W3RBR
Bob Sheskin, N3PPH
Monica Noell, KC3DAS

If anyone was there, and wasn't picked up in this list, it isn't because you weren't appreciated. It's just that we couldn't find you in the photos or we didn't see you personally. But you know who you are, and thank you again for helping to make this year's field day successful.
