

Why should you have an AMATEUR RADIO LICENSE?

- Be part of the communication team after a disaster or for public events (like MS150 or Houston Grand Prix)
- Take your CERT skills to a new level
- Be able to get a message out event when there is no power or internet
- Talk to other states and countries
- Learn skills useful in dozens of careers
- Have some FUN!!

Basic License Classes being offered

3 consecutive Saturdays (2 of class, 1 of review and license testing)

PRESENTED BY: Glenshire and the Oak Forest Amateur Radio Club

Organizer and Glenshire Resident is Ralph Phillips (radio call sign KE5HDF)

When: January 4, 11, and 18

Time: 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Where: Glenshire Community Building

8900 AbbeyDale Dr.

Houston, Texas 77031

Cost: class is $15 (to cover sandwich trays for lunch); book $28, license test $15

Get licensed in time to get on the air for WINTER FIELD DAY (Jan. 25/26)

NO AGE LIMITATIONS

LIMITED to the first 30 people that register

To Register or Questions Contact Ralph at

KE5HDF@ARRL.NET