

I can't find my story on Comm Systems Corp, but I had a note from a guy who said that Comm Systems actually produced a few whole sets on the rusty tooling they bought from Stewart Warner, but the Army inspectors found them to be so bad that they were taken away and never issued. L@@K RARE!

These 390A contracts are not included as no whole set examples have been witnessed. Parts and modules exist, however (spares?).

Electronic Assistance Corp	DAAB05-68-C-0039	145
Electronic Assistance Corp	N00126-70-C-0359		15
Stewart-Warner	42428-PC-59-A1-51	930
Stewart-Warner	DA-36-039-SC-81549	1948
Communications System	FR-11-022-C-4-26418(E)	24
Clavier Corp.	DAAG05-67-C-0016	0
Clavier Corp.	DAAG05-67-C-0136	115
Motorola	RF Deck 14385-PC-58-51	6516
Teledyne	IF Deck 37856-PC-63	6595
Hacking Labs, Menlo Park CA	PS Deck DLA400-80-C-2948		1477
Capehart	Audio 21908-PC-61		