The Harry W. Densham Memorial Award

The Harry W. Densham Memorial Award (formerly the Amateur of the Year Award) was renamed in 1965 to commemorate his many years of service to his club and to the amateur radio fraternity in general.

The picture below, from a 1933 Courier-Post, shows a young Ed Braddock, W2BAY and Dr. Luther Mkharran, W2ASG, holding the original "Outstanding Amateur" trophy which had been lost and the replaced in 1950 by the Amateur of the Year Award.
